Some do first, think afterwards, and repent forever. Wise men make more obportunity you are soon robbed. The duty of the happy is to he'p the suffering to bear their woe.

Thefts never enrich; alms never impoverish; prayers hinder no work.

We are not worthy of loving truth when we can love anything more than that. Good breeding shows itself most when to an ordinary eye, it appears the least.

Levily of behaviour is the bane of all that is good and virtuous. Innocence and mysteriousness never Travelling theatrical companies are likely to be more numerous than usual in New England the coming winter.

A Lyons (France) paper pronounces the yeach crop in that vicinith as really paenominal this season. Fifteen or twenty peaches can be bought for a cent! In Boston 15 or 20 cents would buy about two nice peaches. Late advices from China intimate that both green and black teas will be higher this year than they were last. If one could get pure, good tea at any price it would be some satisfaction. But the doctering and mixing of teas are now
